SPARTANUS

1958

Volume One

Garden Spot High School

New Holland, Pennsylvania

Eastern Lancaster County Joint School

District

Foreword

It is with deep pride that we, the yearbook staff of Garden Spot High School, present the school's first annual "Spartanus". We hope it will be enlightening to those who read it, and a pattern for the publications in the years to come.

We have tried to present the material in a pleasing manner. The yearbook should familiarize you with the students at Garden Spot and bring you a little closer to the activities here.

The name, "Spartanus," was chosen by the students themselves. It is based on the school seal, a Spartan head, selected by the Student Council, and approved by the student body.

CHARLOTTE DELP,

Editor

Dedication

To you, Mr. Ranck, we, the student body of Garden Spot High School, wish to dedicate our first yearbook.

We recognize and appreciate your sincere devotion to the ideals of promoting better educational opportunities for all of us. As president of the Eastern Lancaster County Joint School Board for the past ten years you have proven your intense interest in the educational system.

Also, Mr. Ranck, the student body of Garden Spot High School is deeply grateful for your contributions toward obtaining a new high school for our future graduates. To you go all words of praise for accomplishing such a difficult task.

Accept this dedication as our way of saying "thanks" to you for all you have done.

Appreciation

The seniors wish to dedicate this page to you, Miss Troxell and Mr. Brandau, our class advisors, in appreciation of all you have done for us.

Throughout our high school days, you have been ready and willing to guide us in our decisions, to help make our tasks easier, and to be true friends to all of us. Without you, we would have had a lot less fun and would have made many mistakes.

You both helped us greatly in our junior year, but especially in our senior year when we needed guidance most.

This page is only a small way of expressing our gratitude to two wonderful advisors.

SYNOPSIS

Keats Perry, being a young professor, is chased by a few too many girls, when he wants to find a wife so that he gets a certain job. Vicky Randolph comes to the Perry home to apologize for her behavior in the Professor's classes. John tells Keats that Priscilla would make a good wife, Boggins suggests that he marry Tootsie (but he marries her himself, finally) and Grandma likes Valerie. Secretly Grandpa is betting on Vicky, and he wins the bet.

In order to give the students of Garden Spot High School a governing body, the Student Council was organized and a constitution established. Students from every class in the Senior High School are representatives on the Council, which has a membership of fifteen. Heading this year's Council is Ronald Groff as President, with John Gingrich, Vice President, and Mary Ellen Faust and Ted Kurtz filling the offices of Secretary and Treasurer, respectively. Our Student Council sends representatives to state and district conventions as well as to county conventions.

The Student Council was successful in purchasing a pay telephone, which is now in use. Outfits for the cheerleaders and jackets for the basketball team were purchased. The Student Council was responsible for the outside assemblies. Buses were obtained by the Council to transport students to the away basketball games.

The standard seal for the school rings was also decided upon by the School Council. A school seal was drawn up by engineers at the New Holland Machine Company, with the approval of the Student Council.

The organization is purchasing a school flag, and is ordering picture frames for all sports pictures and graduation pictures.

Sponsorship of three school dances by the Student Council was again part of its curriculum this year.

Your Student Council welcomes suggestions at any time. They may be placed in the suggestion box in the front hall.

We cannot over-emphasize the work of this organization, nor its place in school life. They have exerted a very strong influence in unifying the various phases of school life in the formation of our jointure.

This year, for the first time in Garden Spot High School's history, a Student Council, including the whole jointure, has been formed in the Junior High building. They act along with the Senior Council, as the governing organization of the school.

The thirty members of the Council are led by: Robert Andrew, President; Darryl Smith, Vice President; Mary Ann Boudier, Secretary, and Marianne Evans, Treasurer.

Although most activities of the Council are done on a joint basis with the Senior High group, various student interest projects have been organized throughout the year.

One project was the Christmas decoration program. Each section decorated their home-rooms, and the best one was awarded a $5.00 prize. Popsicle wrappers are being collected to earn gifts to send to retarded children. A foul-shooting and a "Sir Valentine" contest are two more activities that were sponsored.

The Student Council holds one dance a year for Junior High pupils only.

A box for students to offer suggestions is placed in the main hall. The support of every student is needed to carry out this program.

Under the direction of Mr. Paul White, a selected chorus of forty-eight voices made a definite contribution to our Alma Mater.

Gowned for the first time in royal blue, the chorus sang parts from Handel's "Messiah" with Joyce Hoover, alto; John Gingrich, bass; Donald Hollinger, tenor; Linda Jean Weber, soprano; Jean Ann Buckwalter, soprano; and Kathryn Martin, soprano, as soloists.

In addition to the annual Christmas concert in the school auditorium, the chorus presented its program at the following churches: Center Church, Ranck's Evangelical United Brethren Church, and Bridgeville Evangelical Congregational Church. This same program was broadcast by Radio Station WGSA, Ephrata.

The next big activity for the chorus was the Spring Concert. The setting for the program was a record shop.

This year the chorus took its program to Hershey, Pennsylvania, where it was presented to Milton Hershey High School in an exchange program for the Milton Hershey dance band at a later date. An entire day was spent by the chorus visiting the school and town.

School Patrol Mothers, a newly-organized group, was formed through the cooperation of the borough police department, the Parent-Teacher Association, and the school authorities. Fourteen women volunteered or were solicited by telephone contact to assist the pupils in crossing the street safely.

Mrs. Carl Duffy heads the group. She has solicited several new members during the year. The women have been given white capes, whistles and badges by the PTA and caps were donated by Robinson's Store. The badges are engraved with the words "School Crossing Guards".

The mothers have the authority to take license numbers of any automobiles that commit violations. These women are a great asset to the school and community, and their help is very much appreciated.

Garden Spot High School wishes to express appreciation to the many businessmen who purchased advertisements under our new page sponsorship program. Through their cooperation we are able to distribute the yearbook to the student body at a lower rate than usual. Through the kindness of these people and our patrons this publication was made possible.
